

Where Is The Moon Tonight?

Toby Kin Fung

Where is the moon tonight?

It is busy working on the other side of the earth, where my father lives.

What does the color red symbolize?

Red symbolizes sex, heat, terror, and beauty.

Where is New York?

New York is where there are oven-like structures that are hot, smoky, and stuffy.

What does work feel like?

Work feels like it is being done in vain and it's always almost finished. But work feels good.

When will classes be over?

They will be over on a day on when I'll feel lonely and tired.

Is it love when a mother tells her son what to do?

No, it's not. That's interference.

What is love?

Love is exploration. Love preserves the beauty of life.

What will tomorrow look like?

It will be nice and challenging. It will be nerve-wracking, and there will probably be a test in class.
